The Feast of St. Mary Magdalene, Hilton

A sun-lit, spacious green surrounded by trees; a curious unicursal* turf maze; a pleasant medley of houses, village hall and church; what more satisfying setting could be found for a village feast in honour of a saintly patron?

For a whole week Hiltonians enjoy themselves in a great variety of ways. A good number of people of all ages belonging to Hilton and to many a village around, come together for summer fun - you will be welcome.

We do thank those who have worked so hard all the year to prepare for this joyful festival and we offer our thanks, in church and in social occasions throughout the week, for the good friends and happy homes for which Hilton is renowned. A happy Feast Week to you all!

Peter Cameron, Vicar
